10. I'm going to read you two statements about the presidential race. Please tell me which comes closer to your point of view. *

Statement A: The presidential race beginning so early this time around has a POSITIVE effect, because it gives voters more of a chance to learn about the candidates and their positions on the issues.

Statement B: The presidential race beginning so early this time around has a NEGATIVE effect, because candidates will raise and spend too much money and voters will lose interest in the campaign.

<sup>1</sup> In December 1995, this question was phrased, "Some people think the government is trying to do too many things that should be left to individuals and businesses. Others think that government should do more to solve our country's problems. Which comes closer to your own view?"

Turning to the economy . . .

23. I'd like you to rate economic conditions in America using a ten-point scale, on which a one means economic conditions are very bad, and a ten means economic conditions are very good. You may use any number from one to ten, depending on how you feel. Using this ten-point scale, how would you rate economic conditions in America today?

26. As you may know, some homeowners across the country who took out adjustable rate mortgages are having difficulty making their monthly mortgage payments and are facing foreclosure on their homes now that their interest rates have increased. Foreclosure is when a bank sells or repossesses someone's home because they have failed to keep up with mortgage payments. Is it the role of the federal government to take steps to ensure that these people's homes are not foreclosed upon, or is this NOT the role of the federal government?

35. As you may know, the U.S. commander in Iraq, General David Petraeus, will soon deliver a report to Congress on the progress of the United States in Iraq and whether the troop surge is working. If General Petraeus reports that the U.S. is making progress and the troop surge is working, would this make you think that victory is still possible, or not?

37. Currently, there are three different interpretations of the recent troop surge and its value in achieving victory in Iraq. Please tell me which comes closest to your point of view.

A: Continuing in the same direction and keeping the troops in Iraq makes sense, as long as military progress is being made.

B: Continuing in the same direction and keeping the troops in Iraq only makes sense if there is progress on Iraq's political and governmental situation.

C: Continuing in the same direction and keeping the troops in Iraq does not make sense, regardless of any military or political progress.

39. I'm going to read you several possible outcomes to the war in Iraq. Please tell me which one of these would be the most acceptable outcome to you.

A) Maintain the number of troops there now, and U.S. troops leave only after Iraq becomes a stable democracy, however long this takes.

B) U.S. troops leave within the next year even if violence in Iraq continues, but some troops remain in the region to prevent the conflict from spreading.

C) U.S. troops begin the process of leaving now regardless of conditions in Iraq.

Or are none of these acceptable to do?
